

Let Go of What Has You

Join us for an experiential weekend of discovery, renewal & transformation. Learn how you can break free from the past and experience the freedom that belongs to you by letting go.

Do you feel burdened by stress, sadness, or anger in your life and relationships? Could your life be more fulfilling? Do you wonder about your true purpose in life?

We all have mental, emotional, and physical blocks that prevent us from knowing the truth about who we are and interfere with our ability to experience joy, love, and other positive emotions.

The “Let Go of What Has You” workshop is designed to help you see and experience your life in a new way by releasing these blocks.

In the workshop, you will learn about the “Victim Triangle,” a common relationship dynamic which creates unnecessary drama, anger, and resentment.

We then explore a number of tools for creating healthy boundaries and relationships.
