

Personal Transformation Intensive

Live your life to the fullest, find joy & peace through this powerful, proven personal healing workshop series leveraging group process & hypnotherapy in a restorative retreat setting

Do you feel burdened by stress, sadness, or anger in your life and relationships? Could your life be more fulfilling? Do you wonder about your true purpose in life?

We all have mental, emotional, and physical blocks that prevent us from knowing the truth about who we are and interfere with our ability to experience joy, love, and other positive emotions. Many of these are a result of our past and messages we received from others.

The Personal Transformation Intensive (PTI) is a powerful personal growth program for anyone seeking to unburden themselves, discover their authentic self, and live life to the fullest. Personal transformation means getting down below the surface of the roles that we play in life and reclaiming our authentic, deeper self.

PTI is an opportunity to explore these deeper levels and move beyond our unconscious, self-imposed limitations. It is a powerful personal growth program that utilizes group process to facilitate healing, foster a greater sense of fulfillment, and improve relationships.

Program Structure

PTI is a five-month program that meets one weekend each month from Friday afternoon to Sunday afternoon at the Frog Creek Lodge near Gig Harbor, WA. Each weekend follows a progressive set of healing themes that include: codependency, healing addictive patterns, healthy sexuality, mind-body connection, and functional relationships.

Experience these powerful techniques:

- Guided meditation: daily guided meditations that prepare you, help you clear your mind, and find peace.
- Hypnotherapy: a dramatic combination of traditional hypnosis, Gestalt approaches, cognitive behavior therapy, and energy work.
- Breathwork: integrates one's emotional, physical and spiritual healing.
- Energetic Psychodrama: a therapeutic group process that incorporates trance and energy work to re-enact and heal events in a safe but powerful setting.
